David's Experience

David is a senior broker with over 25 years experience as a general insurance broker. David is a Director of Austbrokers Phillips and has overall responsibility for the General Insurance operation.

David manages our Corporate department which specialises in larger and more complex insurance placements. Clients include manufacturing, retail, transport, sports, automotive, property owners and hospitality and includes private and Publicly listed companies.

Many of David's clients have been with him for 20 years or longer and in some cases he is now dealing with the second generation of family at his clients.

Over the years David has personally assisted clients with their claims. In many cases he has been involved with claims for clients where the damage was in excess of $1,000,000 and ensured a successful settlement.
